Acts for Everyone by N.T. Wright

Do you think the Gospels are the only books of the Bible that describe the life of Jesus? While the book of Acts is called “The Acts of the Apostles”, we can also think of it as “The Acts of Jesus: Part Two”. Jesus dominates the entire book and it shows us how He created His own body on this earth in the early Church. The book of Acts reveals that He is not a distant memory but a living and powerful reality, a person who can be known, loved, obeyed, followed, and who continues to act within this physical world. This study will walk you through the entire book of Acts to see how Jesus moved in the early Church and how that knowledge can inform and empower your lives today.
